

Role	Agency	Grant Title & Dates	Amount
PI 100%	FL Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission	Management of titi (Cyrilla racemiflora L.) in restoration of ephemeral wetlands. July 1, 2019 – June 30, 2020.	$32,230
PI 100%	FL Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, Office of Water Quality Policy	Fertilization Management Practices (BMPs) for Tung Tree Production in North Florida (January 2019- December 2021)	$110,000
PI 100%	FL Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission	Management of titi (Cyrilla racemiflora L.) in restoration of ephemeral wetlands. July 1, 2018 – June 30, 2019.	$34,789
PI 100%	FL Department of Environmental Protection; Fish & Wildlife Conservation Commission, Bureau of Invasive Plant Management	Comparison of standard triclopyr amine and ester herbicide treatments to new choline and free acid triclopyr formulations, imazamox, and flumioxazin for controlling coral Ardisia (Ardisia crenata) in Florida forests and natural areas July 19, 2017 to June 30, 2018	$12,195
PI 100%	FL Department of Environmental Protection; Fish & Wildlife Conservation Commission, Bureau of Invasive Plant Management	Comparison of standard triclopyr amine and ester herbicide treatments to new choline and free acid triclopyr formulations, imazamox, and flumioxazin for controlling coral Ardisia (Ardisia crenata) in Florida forests and natural areas July 25, 2016 to June 16, 2017	$17,037
PI 100%	FL Department of Environmental Protection; US Environmental Protection Agency Section 319 (Water Quality) Grant.	Best management practices for forest fertilization in pine straw production using slow release fertilizers on excessively drained soils of the Suwannee Valley, September 11, 2013 to December 10, 2017	$556,032